20 SEPTEMBER 2016

CULINA TO DISTRIBUTE XANADU IN SINGAPORE

Culina is pleased to announce the addition of Xanadu to our portfolio.

The agreement between Culina and Xanadu provides sole and exclusive distribution and sales rights for Xanadu in Singapore with effect from 20 SEPTEMBER 2016

Xanadu Wines are a family owned and operated winery dedicated to producing wines of quality and distinction that reflect the true characteristics of the Margaret River region of Western Australia. Established by Dr John Lagan, an Irishman who arrived in Margaret River in 1968, he was inspired by the pioneering spirit of the region. At the time, the potential of Margaret River as one of the world's finest wine-producing regions was only just being considered. John established one of the region's earlier vineyards planting his first vines in 1977.

Leelyne Yeo, General Manager, Culina Singapore said, "Xanadu Wines is a multiple-trophy winning winery from Australia's picturesque Margaret River region, having won seven trophies at Australia's prestigious National Wine Show in the last six years for their Cabernet Sauvignon. Additionally, Xanadu has been named James Halliday's Wine of the Year in 2014 and in his top ten Best Value Wineries of 2017."

We are delighted to add Xanadu Wines to our international wine portfolio incorporating France, Italy, Spain, Hungary, Australia, USA, Chile, Argentina and New Zealand".

Darren Rathbone, CEO, Rathbone Wine Group, said, "I have always been impressed by Culina's pursuit of excellence in all things epicurean. They have become Singapore's best provider of gastronomic delights in wine and food. We are thrilled to have Xanadu wines added to their already impressive international wine portfolio".
